

Join one of the industry's largest,
most dynamic teams of chemists,
lab & biotech experts

Apply now for an internship at our site near Frankfurt,
Germany

- Three-month internship
- Engage with a large team of chemists, engineers and biotechnology experts
- Support projects with some of the largest, most innovative companies
- Experience the challenges and daily work of a chemist in the industry:
 - Chemical process development
 - Biotechnology and fermentation
 - Upscaling from lab to multi-ton scale
 - Continuous processing

-
- Gain insights into career opportunities
 - Meet Evonik's business, R&D, production and quality experts
 - Postdoc & job recommendations and increase your professional network
 - Requirements: Completed M.S. degree with a focus on organic chemistry
 - Contact: Dr. Jochen Niemeyer (jochen.niemeyer@uni-due.de)

Evonik's Hanau site is around 30 minutes away from Frankfurt by train or car. The site includes canteens with subsidized food, free parking and a fitness studio.