

AURORA 2030 TT2.3 Hub 'Health & Well-being'

Teaching Sustainable Development Goals: Methods for Education

2025 Seminar Series

Explore innovative strategies to integrate SDGs into teaching practices, for impactful, and future-ready education.

Arjen Wals

Professor, Wageningen University (Netherlands) & UNESCO Chairholder

Arjen Wals is an expert in transformative learning and sustainability, focusing on whole-institution approaches, decolonizing education, and fostering sustainable living. He is a Professor at Wageningen University and a Guest Professor at NMBU, with an Honorary Doctorate from the University of Gothenburg.

Matthias Barth

President, Eberswalde University for Sustainable Development (Germany)

Matthias Barth is a leading expert in sustainability education, focusing on innovative learning, competence development, and curriculum change. With a passion for enabling transformative change, he works to empower individuals and organizations to drive sustainability.

Add it to your calendar!

20th January 2025

12:00 – 13:00 PM GMT (1:00 – 2:00 PM CET)

Zoom Link

Meeting ID: 840 0435 3608 Passcode: 650982

AURORA

UNIVERSITÀ DEGLI STUDI DI NAPOLI
FEDERICO II

UNIVERSITÉ
PARIS-EST CRÉTEIL
VAL DE MARNE

University of Glasgow