

Workshop on

Multilingualism in school contexts: From language education programs to teacher education and finally multilingualism in the classroom

Organized by the Working Group Mehrsprachigkeitsforschung (Research on Multilingualism) at the Institute for German as Second Language, University of Duisburg-Essen

Essen, May 17th, 2024

Program

1:30pm	Coffee and meet & greet
2pm	Jeff MacSwan (University of Maryland)	Overview on Language Education Programs, Evaluation, Discussion on Major Issues in US Language Policies
3pm	Katja F. Cantone & Bea Feier (Working Group Mehrsprachigkeitsforschung)	New Course of Studies for Elementary Teacher Education
3:15pm	Marlene David (Working Group Mehrsprachigkeitsforschung)	Language Policies in Schools in Germany
3:30pm	Tobias Schroedler (Working Group Multilingualism and Social Inclusion)	Preparing Teachers for Multilingual Learners
3:45pm	Kevin Niehaus & Laura Di Venanzio (Working Group Mehrsprachigkeitsforschung)	Special Needs and Academic Language
4pm	Coffee break
4:15pm	Discussion
5pm	Kellie Rolstad and Jeff MacSwan (University of Maryland)	"Translanguaging in Different Context: Comparing Germany and the US" (hybrid) Round table discussion with Tanya Kaya (English and Turkish teacher, postdoc, UDE)